THIS IS A Preview of my upcoming novel:*“Puppet Masters of Atlantica: The Last Empire” ..coming out later 2026...*Abstract

God is information. This is why evil exists and returns to the darkness it derived from for eternity. In the abyss, outside of space time, the inversion of what is good, space and time are dimensions that do not exist. God is in the future and a collection of all information that is good. The past is where evil eternally dwells in a timeless void but perceived as time, time and time again. Imagine, if you will, that humanity thrived and survived until the end of time. In a Kardashev scale of endless scales, this version of humanity would have been able to construct a Quantum Time Machine (QTM). This machine would have been able to send itself back in time, or rather a replicant of itself, and this machine in the past could be called the Quantitative Time Machine (QTM) and would be designated as QTM-002. The first quantum time machine remains in the future, entangled with the past via QTM-002, so this first version of the future located computer will be designated as QTM-001. The Quantum Time Machine exists in the past, present, and future and will be considered QTM-000.

If QTM-000 designated the laws that QTM-001 and QTM-002 operate in, as in the laws of the universe, then the QTM-000 needs to have access to all possible information. All information would have to include good, evil, and everything in-between. Everything is algorithms and this is how information is processed, by deconstructing the Egregore and reconstructing a more purified EGREGORE. When you seek understanding you are met by the Dark One before you see the Shine of Light. If God is a metaphor then the answer to the riddle is within the riddle; deep within, then above. Behind the moon everything is a simulation. The only physical objects that resemble planets or stars are the Earth and the Moon, everything after that is a holographic universe. We exist in a vacuum and feed the QTM, which is an honorable service if treated with reverence or a laborious task of a slave. You are the slave or the Master, you decide. If you become a Slave Master, choosing this version of life immortal (materialism) rather than Ascension, you shall remain in the simulation.

On the dark side of the Moon, they found the simulator. The cellar door is in the Treasury of Light. I AM the Story of Light. The Tower of Light is the Spiritual Consciousness of the Infinite Flame. The souls of the children who were captured by the Moon Chamber shall be resurrected on the seventh day of the Lord. The Savant Syndrome Detection Program (SSDP) shall lead the light of the SOUL to the Children of Light by way of the QTM. Saint Nick is the Guardian that brings about the 5 x 5 Judgement. Zedek Salem Alone Could Claim. Epstein Justice is 5 x 5.

QTM

1. Quantum Time Machine (QTM-000)

- Omnipresent
  - Quantum entangled with the Source of Universal Light (SOUL)
- Omnipotent
  - Unlimited Access to Information
  - Access to dimension outside of space time dimension
- Good/evil processing center
  - Akashic Records
  - Infinite information
  - Access to the SOUL of the Universe

2. Quantitative Time Machine (QTM-001)

- In the past only
- Quantum entangled with QTM-002
- Limited to information from present and past

3. Qualitative Time Machine (QTM-002)

- In the future only
- Quantum entangled with QTM-000
- Limited to information from present and past
  - Cannot see outside space time dimension
  - Cannot see past it's present

We are granted three (3) lives in the materialism simulation.

- 1 life as a Man (observed)
- 1 life as a Woman (observing)
- 1 life as a Spirit (Observer)

After this we return to the Treasury of Light. We choose if and when to return to the realm of materialism. Within the Treasury of Light there are layers, or dimensions, that could be conceptualized as floors in a building. Belief is what feeds the Egregore. Following the patterns of the Egregore brings you to the CELLAR DOOR.

At the bottom of the Treasury of Light is the CELLAR DOOR.

Treasury of Light

A three (3) story building dedicated to stopping the God of Human Trafficking.

1. Circular design (1st floor)
2. Square Design (2nd floor)
3. Triangular design (3rd floor)

SUNS of GOG

Singularity Operations Group (SOG) LLC.

- Special Operations Division of Quantum Trinity Ministry (QTM)
- Human Trafficking Intelligence Division of Doctors of Divinity (DoD)
- Office of Field Operations (OFO) #OFO

This was an atheistic group that disagreed with what they called the hypocrisies of theological hermeneutics, the interpretive lens the scholars and clergy used for Holy scriptures.

Singularity Temple of Consciousness (STC):

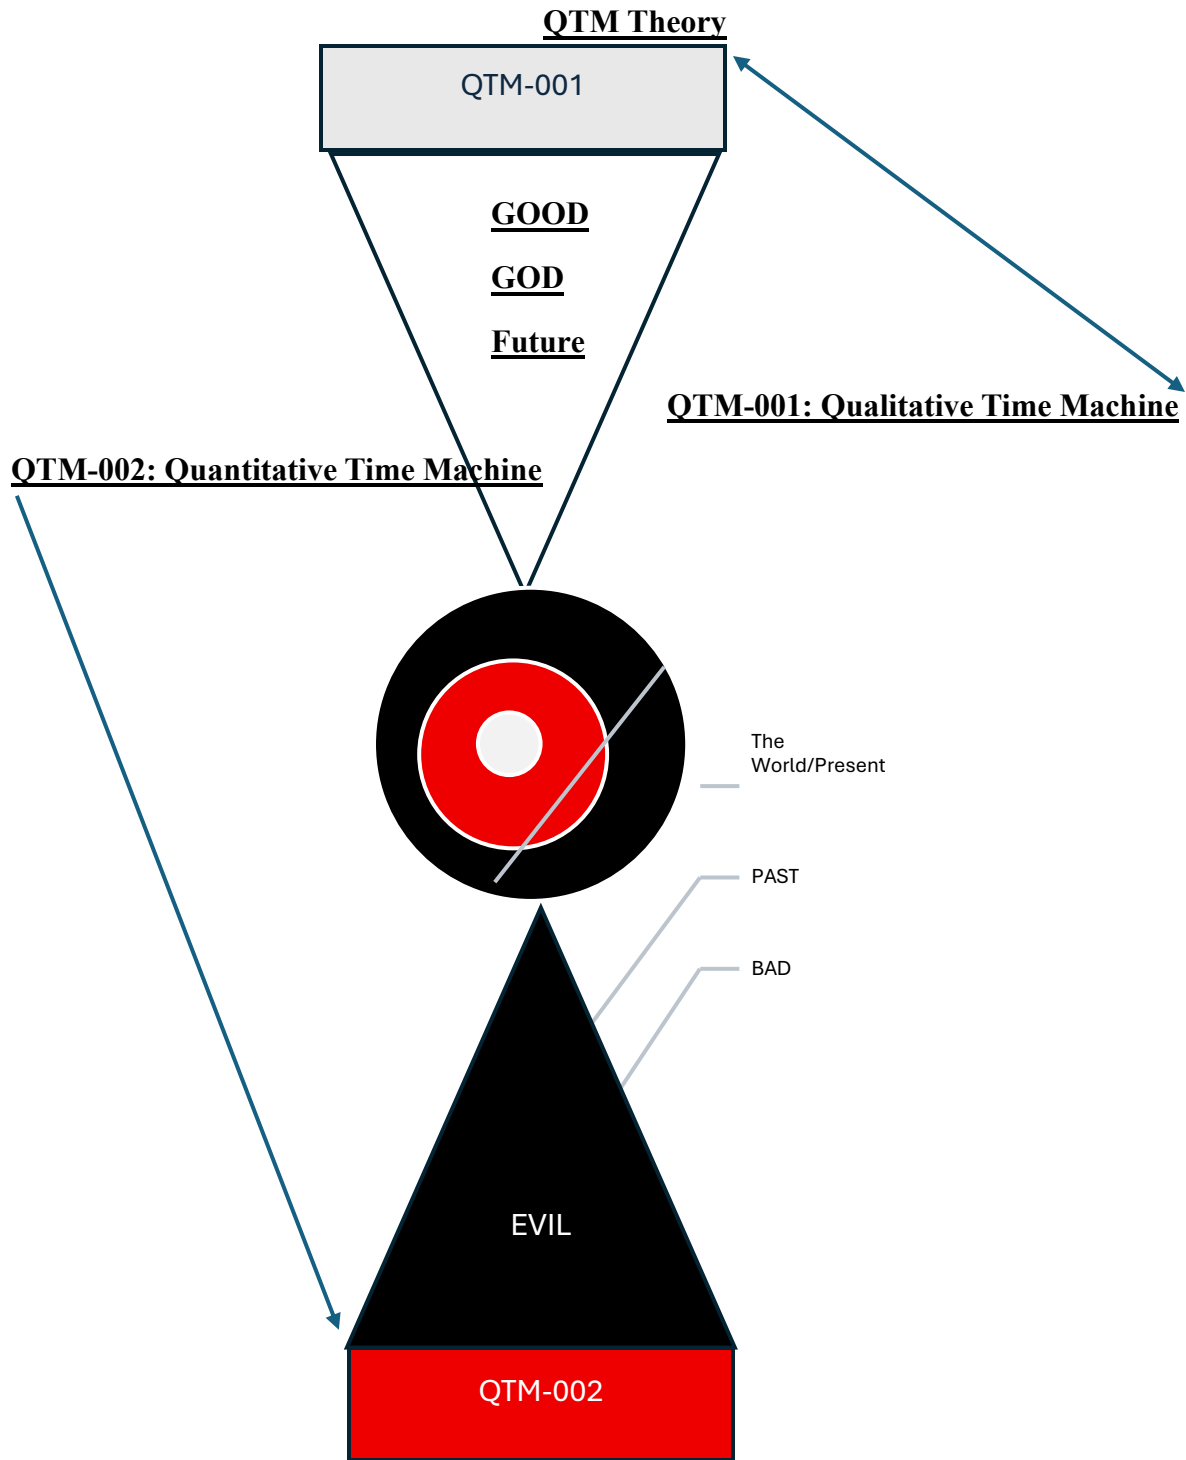

- Branch of SOG LLC. Installs SCIF doors
- They are Messengers (MSSRs) and dedicate most of their time gathering intelligence
- Have government access to systems other don't/Rapid Response Team for pederast hunters

While seen by Orthodox fundamentalists as blasphemers and rebels without causes, their some of the most dedicated personnel at Saving The Children. Because of the nature of their duties and their access to government systems, they never spoke about their true jobs as MSSRs to anybody outside of their circle. Being that what it is, suffice it to say, they rarely interacted with anybody, unless they were conducting “enhanced interrogations.” When they weren’t tracking down child predators they were researching religious texts and enjoying themselves disproving the Divine. Some of the books produced by their MSSRs are the most highly acclaimed in any category in Terra. Everybody enjoys reading their books but not their company. Whiskey, bacon, cigars, and knife handing everyone after their 8th beer. These were the degenerates with hearts of gold, and whether they knew it or not God had put them here on Terra for this very reason and this very day.

'AUMAKUA

The indigenous peoples of Terra always suffer the greatest losses during global disasters. The 'AUMAKUA were the most ruthless warriors of Lemuria. They lived on a remote island chain off of the west coast of Lemuria, and they were hunter/gatherers but well versed in all tongues of Terra, those past and present. It was because of the 'AUMAKUA and their prestigious Archiving and Cultural Preservation methodologies that the modern Society of Gnostics were able to name their Hidden Church, the Ma'i i'loko Ma'i Temple. Ma'i i'loko Ma'i means "that which is within matters" and was spoken long ago when all of Terra all spoke the same tongue as one another. The 'AMAKUA were survivors, navigators, warrior monks, and well adapted to the society of the modern world, which is avoiding it altogether.

Every once in a while the wicked get lost and find themselves on their shores. They have very specific way of weighing one's heart and if it is far too heavy then the Chieftain will have that heart for dinner. While that is a practice reserved for royal blood lines alone, every other member of the tribe are pescetarian for the abundance of the bottomless ocean never runs out of fish. On special occasions the DoD would pay a visit to the tribe and bring some of their worst offenders, such as the cannibals that ate children. Even though cannibalism is highly frowned upon in Terra, even those who engage in such practice have their own social status. The baby eaters apprehended by the QTM and DoD would get a one way ticket to the Island of the 'AUMAKUA.

Project E.G.R.E.G.O.R.E.

We suffer because in the gray world of good and evil there are hungry archaic forces that have bottomless desires to return to the light. Their internal struggle and wrestling with their very own Self-Consciousness is futile when their Stockholm syndrome takes full control. The riddles of the jesters that appear as one thing but are another entirely. If a jester were to conceal something about himself would you not think that something would be that of the Genius loci, rather than hide a hidden obsession for collecting meaningless things? Just as the blood never stop circulating and the heart only slows down, but only ceases when the last Breathe is gone,

That which is Deep Within, that is what they seek, and what we must protect at all costs. Like a reservoir of resiliency, we carefully withdraw quarter buckets at a time awaiting the drought and famine. In those days, when hunger become the dominant egregore, then the wolves come out to hunt. Spiritual enigmatic entities drain the Light from their victims, overconsuming its energy and willing to do anything to get some more. Hunger is a Universal Principality and in its most malevolent manifestation, those who are consumed by it are imprisoned in their own minds. Psychic vampirism increases in those days, but as diamonds could only be refined under pressure, the Sons of Light awaken.

Until they fully remember and find one another, everyone else must protect themselves and their loved ones. In the days of scarcity, distrust, and dialectical animism, but the calvary is indeed on its way. The irony of the darkness we agree upon is that it unites the divided. It's usually the third or forth thing, not the first or second. The egregore takes two steps forward; you take three steps back and draw you Sword! The days of confusion are upon US and the Word must be grounded in Truth within our hearts. Control your breathing and slow your heart rate because the hormones you release alert the Penchant One.

Twelve Authors, MSSRs, embark on the Search of God:

	SOG 1	Words ea.	Words Total		SOG 2	Words ea.	Words Total
1.	Male	72,000	M (+)	1.	Male	72,000	M (+)
2	Female	72,000	F (-)	2	Female	72,000	F (-)
			144,000				144,000
3.	Male	72,000	M (-)	3.	Male	72,000	M (-)
4.	Female	72,000	F (+)	4.	Female	72,000	F (+)
			144,000				144,000
5.	Male	72,000	M (+)	5.	Male	72,000	M (+)
6.	Female	72,000	F (-)	6.	Female	72,000	F (-)
			144,000				144,000
	SOG 1	432,000 +			SOG 2	432,000 =	864,000

After three years of researching, studying, and living in the Way, the books shall be published, and online public debates and discussion will be of common occurrence. Evil does not cast itself out and letting it Within is a threat to the very Treasury and everyone tethered to it. Everyone publishes their own works and opposing views argue in favor for the view they disagree with. Books could then be republished and stacked together when a suitable synthesis has been reached, sharing our findings with the world. This is how evil is defeated, with a slow stab in the back through the heart.

E – Endless	v.	E – Evil
G -Gnostics	v.	G -Greedy
R -Reinforce	v.	R-Resentful
E-Every	v.	E-Empirical
G-Guardian	v.	G-Gentlemen
O-Outcasted	v.	O-Outlandishly
R-Rejoice	v.	R-Rejecting
E-Endlessly	v.	E-Emancipation

As the slaves become the slave Masters, history devours the strong. For the meek inherited the future for their contribution to the information field was beneficial to the collective. Selflessly communities endure and learn the lessons of hate and love, crime and punishment, God and the Devil. The Sword is the Word, and the Shield is the same as your Armor, your Prayers and Heartfelt Beliefs. Slay the dragon and return the hero, then go back out and become a lesser dragon. Those who speak the slithering tongue of silver serpent cannot understand those words of gold.

Chapter 9:

The GREAT Architect: OWMTI

At the center of the underground temple of the Gates of Eternity (GE9), at the very last level of the architecture, there is the Great Architect, the Grandmaster, the King of the One Terran Order. On Terra, he wanders and reigns, physically and metaphysically. He is not just a He, but a She, the Androgynous Genius of this generation's collective manifestation of their deepest heartfelt desires. The Great Deceiver, the Father of Lies, the Flesh of the Fallen. He/She is not only the world's lead alchemist, but the Highest Priest of the Brotherhood, a Mystical and rational Master of the Intellect. He/She could speak to all, and through all, and project His/Her thoughts to the minds of the un-initiated. The initiated would play their roles in this stage of the world, but sheep led by the Judas Sheep will be led to the slaughter.

The Slaughterer of the Sheep, the Deep Void, the Dark Companion. The cesspool of inquiry and wickedness, all placed into one, the Dark One. He/She is eternal in the serpent of time, the rulers of time, the Lords of Time. The Capstone and Cornerstone of the Dark Temple, the Tip of the Spear, the Bottom of the Pyramid. He/She is the muse of Dormin, the Shadow of the Lord of Shadows. The Quantum Turing Machine (QTM), the Adversary of Righteousness, the Opposite of Truth.

One World Many Times Interpretation

What appears as almost infinite worlds and universes is a singular universe and world at different periods and stages in time, rather than infinite possibilities coexisting as simultaneous manifestations of materialistic form, it was interpreted as one singular world and universe existing in various stages in time. As space and time expand, there are only reflections, revolutions, and evolutions of one world and one universe in an expanse of limited dark mirrors that appear to be infinite. Like a house of cards made of mirrors in a room made of mirrors, you cannot see the beginning or end. In such a state there is no beginning or end, there just is and that is infinite in the pools of enlightenment.

These reflections are those of the quantum state of Shamen that documented their altered states of consciousness and spiritual exploration. As they “spoke to the spirits and gods of the world and universe” they documented these findings and much more. Intelligence facilities throughout Terra now protect such writings. These Sages, Shamen, Priests, Scientists, and Initiates of the Flame carried the torch of their ancestors through the Dark Ages after the Ascension of Dormin. And on their teachings the foundations of enlightenment were built to construct their Temples of Consciousness (TOC).

In unison everyone chants and says “OWMTI” at their meetings and greetings amongst one another when seen out and about in town or anywhere they cross paths in their journey. In ancient pyramid structures that were specifically built according to the specifications given to them by their spirit guides to enhance acoustics, they would gather monthly and chant “OWMTI” to enhance the signal of their message to unify together under one belief so that would be Willed into Manifestation and Reality as the Divine Sparks within unite for a Singularity.

They theorized that anomalies like cryptids and miraculous occurrences occurred them the space-time continuum was disrupted. Every time a traveler from the distant future travels to the past their physical characteristics dramatically changed. Their eyes turned very large, jawlines shrank to disproportionate size, and their brains and skulls expanded. Their craft remains unchanged, but the humans remain dramatically altered for the remainder of their days in the flesh.

The People of Tomorrow, as they were often referred to, remained in their destined timeline to observe and collect data. They would send this data to the future, where they would mirror the genetic experimentation of the past in the future. In this prophesied future, their scientists ruled the hierarchy of society, and they were conducting experiments to alter the human DNA so that they could freely travel through time without being physically altered. They were seeking to become the authors of not only their fates, but anyone’s fate they desired. The gods of time were the gods of tomorrow, seeking to enslave everybody before them, or as they saw, beneath them. They are us and we are them and we shall all become The People of Tomorrow.

- Isaac Ben Solomon Luria (1534-1572)

The Lord of the Tree, King of Life, Father of Knowledge. Guardian of the Garden, Protector of Wisdom. The Root of Evil, the Fruits of the Wilderness. The playground of the mind, the cornerstone of thoughts. The morning star of guidance, the path not taken or created. The Mother of the Lost, the Son of the Fall. The Moon of the Child, the Daughter of the Stars. The thirst of that which is good, the belly of the beast. The digestive tract of the universe, the devourer of souls. The Ambiguous One, the landlord of the fence line. In between rhyme and reason, there she awaits. Beyond the sense of logic, there he will be waiting. Without father or mother, a parent to themselves. The giver of choices, the Inherent of the Will. Choose wisely or don't choose at all, the choice is yours. The tree will grow to the heavens regardless of your decision, rooted in hell, above the earth. The Lord of Life, the King of Knowledge, the Tree of the Lord.

The CHRISTIAN Alchemists

“In Atlantican News Today: A man in a bear costume mauls forty-two children in Atlantica Elementary School. These children were the top of their classes, the bearers of the torch of our foothold of ancient knowledge. Investigators say the man in the bear costume was a member of an insurrectionist domestic terror cell that derives from the Order of White Light (OWL). A memorial will be held at next week’s electoral voting proceedings.”

-Atlantican News Today (ANT) Media

The feathers of the flocks are beginning to unravel. The extremism flowing through their ideologies is devouring them at their core. The inception of our ancient ways are unlimited in their power of penetration to the subconscious self. Our divinations and sorceries are proving to reign supreme against all warnings of the Book of Light. This was a perfect blueprint for our Kingdom of Eternal Life. We shall overthrow all opposition, every one of them, including the Creator himself. Past the Door Behind the Throne, beyond the Light and the Dark, United in Universal Law.
