Forword

The citation below is somewhat peculiar. I think that the wordlist needs confirmation, first, and even its provenance seems to be more Semitic, or even exclusively Semitic, and in contradiction to other published analyses. That's why I have combined the list taken from the link above with the Karachai-Balkarian coincidences in the Sumerian from the Sumerian and Karachai-Balkarian Türkic.

Translation of Sumerian Words and Phrases

In the transliterations that follow, every letter must be pronounced. There are no silent syllables in Sumerian. Hence, "KIA" is pronounced "keeya"; "KAIMANU" is pronounced "ka-ee-mah-nu"

Vowels	Consonants
a as in "father"	X as in German "ach"
e as in "whey"	CH (Same as above)
i as in "Antique"	K (Same as above)
o as in "boat" (but rarely found)	SH as in "Shall"
u as in "Zulu"	SS as in, perhaps, "lasso"; a hissing "s" common to Arabic languages
	Z as in "lots"; a hard "ts" sound, not quiet as in "zoo"
